% AO 472 (Rev. 12/03) Order of Detention Pending Trial

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA V. ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL Defendant In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case. Part I—Findings of Fact (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and has been convicted of a conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant is entarged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), 1) and has been convicted of a federal offense concluded an offense of which the maximum sentence is life impressionment of death. a notificate for which it amount sentence is life impressionment of each in a concluded of the part of the defense of which the maximum sentence is life impressionment of each in a concluded of the part of the defense of which the maximum sentence is life impressionment of each in a concluded in the pression of the parts of the offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offenses. 3 Aperted of not more than the waste has elapsed since the concluded in the defendant from imprission to the offense described in finding (1) was committed and the self-endant than condition of conditions will reasonably assure the self-ety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not reburied this presumption. Alternative Findings (A) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant will not appear in the surface of the defendant as required and the self-yof the community. Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear the self-endant part of the defendant as required and the self-yof fine community. Part III—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General in this designanced repressional risk fulls. Concluded while the			United	STATES DISTRI	CT COURT
WILLIAM CARNEY Defendant In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial bin this case. Part I — Findings of Fact 17 The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(f) and has been convicted of a federal offense state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed - that is a critice of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3145(f)(f)(f) and has been convicted of a federal offense state or local offense for which a maximum venture to his imprisonment of each a critice of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 315(s)(4), an offense for which a maximum venture to his imprisonment of each an offense for which a maximum venture to his imprisonment of each part of the offense described in finding (f) was contrailed white the electedant that here convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(f)(A+C), or comparable side or local offenses. 31 Agriculture of the defendant is a constructed of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(f)(A+C), or comparable side or local offenses. 32 Agriculture of the defendant is a constructed white the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense. 33 Agriculture of the defendant is a clapsed since the date of conviction release of the defendant from imprisonment for the conviction release of the defendant from imprisonment for the conviction release of the defendant from imprisonment for the conviction release of the defendant from imprisonment for the conviction release of the defendant from imprisonment from the conviction release of the defendant from imprisonment from the conviction release of the defendant from imprisonment from which a maximum term of imprisonment from the conviction of conditions will reasonably assure th
MILLIAM CARNEY Case Number: 1:08-mj-2043(JS)			UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
In accordance with the ball Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case. Part Findings of Fact	V.			ORDEF	ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL
In accordance with the Ball Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case. Part I—Findings of Fact OI The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a federal offense state or local offense that would have been a fewer of local offense in circumstance your grise to federal jurisdiction had existed that is a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4). an offense for which the maximum sentence is [bit imprisonment or death.] an offense for which the maximum sentence is [bit imprisonment or death.] a feloay that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in [bit in the prior of the defendant was not release pending trial for a federal, state or local offenses. OI The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offenses. OI The offense described in finding (1). OI Findings Nos. (1), O2 and OI OS stablish a rebutable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternative Findings (A) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense is offense. The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding (1) that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternative Findings (B) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding (1) that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as for the presumption established by finding (1) that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonab				Case Numbe
Part I — Findings of Fact			,,
O	det				been held. I conclude that the following facts require the
or local offerest that would have been a federal offerest if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed - that is a ricrum of violence as defined in Is U.S.C. § 316(3)(4). an offerest for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment of each. an offerest for which is maximum tern of imprisonment of each of the defendant was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. 318(2)(1)(A)(C), or comparable state or local offenses. (22) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offenses. (33) A period of not more than five years has clapsed since the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense. (34) A period of not more than five years has clapsed since the defendant was not release of the defendant from imprisonment for the offense described in finding (1). (45) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebutuable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternative Findings (A) (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense. [1] for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in the presumption of the defendant will only the presumption exhibition of the defendant will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternative Findings (B) [1] There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Alternative Findings (B) [2] There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinemen
a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(B(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense. (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction release of the defendant from imprisonment for the offense described in finding (1). (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebutuable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternative Findings (A) (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in under 18 U.S.C. 8; 924(c). (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternative Findings (B) (1) There is a scrious risk that the defendant will not appear. Part III—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the learing establishes by clear and convincing evidence a preponderance of the evidence that Defendant consents to detention at this time without prejudice to his right to apply for bail in the future under the applicable statute and case law. Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody opending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private co		(1)	or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed - that is a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4). an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death.
$ 3142(ft)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense. A period of not more than five years has clapsed since the	an otherise for which a maximum orm of imprisonment or ten years or more is prescribed in
There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in moder 18 U.S.C. § 924(c).		(3)	§ 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense. (3) A period of not more than five years has clapsed since the — date of conviction — release of the defendant from imprisonment for the offense described in finding (1). (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.
Gor which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c).	_	Tr
under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c). The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding I that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternative Findings (B)
Alternative Findings (B) (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence a preponderance of the evidence that Defendant consents to detention at this time without prejudice to his right to apply for bail in the future under the applicable statute and case law. Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody ponding appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. 6/25/08 Date Alta Signature of Judge Hon. Joel Schneider, USMJ		(2)	(2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assu
Calcability			the appearance of the defendant as required and
Part III—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence a preponderance of the evidence that Defendant consents to detention at this time without prejudice to his right to apply for bail in the future under the applicable statute and case law. Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. 6/25/08 Date Signature of Judge Hon. Joel Schneider, USMJ	- · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. 6/25/08 Date Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. 6/25/08 Date Signature of Judge Hon. Joel Schneider, USMJ
Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. 6/25/08 Date Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. 6/25/08 Date Signature of Judge Hon. Joel Schneider, USMJ
Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. 6/25/08 Date Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. 6/25/08 Date Signature of Judge Hon. Joel Schneider, USMJ					11. 11.11.11.11.11
Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. 6/25/08 Date Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. 6/25/08 Date Signature of Judge Hon. Joel Schneider, USMJ				11-11-11-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1
Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. 6/25/08 Date Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. 6/25/08 Date Signature of Judge Hon. Joel Schneider, USMJ
Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. 6/25/08 Date Signature of Judge Hon. Joel Schneider, USMJ	dera		d that the credible testimony and information su
The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. 6/25/08 Date Signature of Judge Hon. Joel Schneider, USMJ	Def	Defendant consents to detention at this time without prejudice to his right to apply for bail in the future under the applicable statute and ease law.
The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. 6/25/08 Date Signature of Judge Hon. Joel Schneider, USMJ
The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. 6/25/08 Date Signature of Judge Hon. Joel Schneider, USMJ
The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. 6/25/08 Date Signature of Judge Hon. Joel Schneider, USMJ
The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. 6/25/08 Date Signature of Judge Hon. Joel Schneider, USMJ
Date Signature of Judge Hon. Joel Schneider, USMJ	reas Gov	he ex sonab zernn	defendant is committed to the custody of the Attor tent practicable, from persons awaiting or servi- ble opportunity for private consultation with def- nent, the person in charge of the corrections facil	rney General or his designated repring sentences or being held in cultinse counsel. On order of a cour	resentative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, istody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a rt of the United States or on request of an attorney for the
Hon. Joel Schneider, USMJ
			Date	/ ·	···
Name and Title of Judge					. Joel Schneider, USMJ une and Title of Judge

^{*}Insert as applicable: (a) Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. § 801 et seq.); (b) Controlled Substances Import and Export Act (21 U.S.C. § 951 et seq.); or (c) Section 1 of Act of Sept. 15, 1980 (21 U.S.C. § 955a).